About Jeroen Pop

Jeroen Pop is a attorney-at-law and partner at AKD. He advises on commercial contracting, joint ventures, (cross-border) restructurings and investments, mergers and acquisitions and general company law.

Jeroen's clients are businesses in the Netherlands and abroad. They appreciate Jeroen's speed, the ease with which he can be contacted, pragmatic attitude and sincere interest in his clients' business motivations.

Jeroen usually works in multidisciplinary teams, together with lawyers and tax consultants from various countries. Together with Erwin Rademakers he leads the AKD Asian desks (Japan, South Korea and China). He is also a member of the general board of DUJAT (Dutch-Japanese Trade Federation).
